

Art World News

MARCH 2016

Society of Unique Artists' Art Bar

The Society of Unique Artists (SUA) held a successful debut of its Art Bar event at AFA Gallery in SoHo in January. The Art Bar is a new concept created by SUA to further its non-profit mission of promoting unique artists and art forms. Among the artists in attendance was Michael Coffee artist Michael Breach, center, with Ronnie and Jacqueline Simon, creative and executive director, respectively, of the Society of Unique Artists.

Breach, a coffee artist who creates portraits in latte foam. Each Art Bar event will be held at various galleries in the New York City area, and will highlight the work of unique artists. Footage will be featured on SUA's television program, Extreme Art Television. Visit: www.suartists.org.