The 2012 Unique Art Awards

The art community was privy to yet another stunning demonstration of talent and creativity

On October 29, 2012, Society of Unique Artists hosted its second annual Unique Art Awards, an extraordinary one of a kind event, that recognizes unique and extreme artists from around the world in various media.

Since 2004, SUA has worked tirelessly and independently to promote truly innovative artists to the public. The Unique Art Awards is an endeavor that furthers SUA's non-profit mission to highlight these unique artists and art forms.

This dazzling function was once again held at the prestigious Jerome L. Greene Performance Space in Manhattan and was marvelously hosted by Extreme Art Television's lovely Danielle Guldin. The event was sponsored by Blick Art Materials and Sunce Winery & Vineyards. Co-hosts Lindsay Arber and Laura Vandiver added their own flair to the festivities, while Walter Beaubrauth, Marni Halasa and Apollo Riego gave truly outstanding performances.

The spectacular evening began with food, cocktails and an exciting video of extreme and unique art forms. Throughout the evening, 28 incredible artists were acknowledged in six categories (Unique Botanical Art, Unique Food Art, Unique Painting, Unique Snow Art, Unique Unusual Art and Unique Art on Wheels) for their amazing artwork, while 15 artists received awards for either the Most Extreme or Creative Artist of 2012 in one of six categories from a beautifully painted body model bearing the event logo (painted by Most Creative award winner in the Unique Body Painting category, Daniela Rodriguez). The award winners expressed their humility and how honored they were to be part of such a truly momentous and remarkable event.

Spectators who attended the event were amazed to learn about many of these astounding art forms, and were generally delighted to have been invited to witness and participate in such a successful event.

Anyone who missed the event can visit SUA's Facebook Page to view photos from the event.

The event will air as an Extreme Art Television special on MNN and Bronxnet. Fortunately, those who do not live in New York City will also be able to watch the show on MNN's streaming site, so please check our EAT page to find out air dates and times.

SUA looks forward to hosting the 2013 Unique Art Awards with your continued support!!!
