

Finding The Serial Number

Piano manufactures place serial numbers in a variety of places. Pianos often have numbers other than serial numbers, such as case and part numbers. Some pianos DO NOT HAVE SERIAL NUMBERS, therefore the exact age cannot be determined. Look for a serial number in the locations marked with S

Need Help?

If you can't find your piano's serial number or if it doesn't have a serial number, ask your piano tuner or local piano dealer for help. Sometimes the action (piano keys) will have a date of manufacture written on it. This date should be within a few years of the piano's date of manufacture.
